

Matangi 1914 - 1918

Matangi 100 Years ago was a growing rural settlement around the newly amalgamated (1917) cooperative Dairy Factory, the railway station, Primary School, Post Office, General Store, blacksmith etc.

By 1918 the huge project of building the 'Glaxo' building and Factory houses was underway with a YMCA hostel set up to help house some of the men required to do the work. Such a project was unusual because of the war.

At the outbreak of war "hundreds of men rode in small groups from the outlying rural areas, including Kawhia, Oparau, Taneatua, Te Mata, Waerenga, Gordonton, Maungatautari, Waotu, Matangi, Waingarua, Waitomo and Te Akau. Eventually they arrived at Hamilton, where they mixed with urban-based men from Hamilton and nearby towns"

"Between 1914 and 1918, Waikato families and communities farewelled more than 5000 men as they headed to war."

much appreciated.

MATANGI.

OFF TO THE WAR.

On January 3rd, 1917, a further batch of Matangi boys will be going into camp, consisting of Messrs E. Poynter, J. Taylor, C. Brown and E. Churches. To mark the occasion and also to say goodbye to Lieut. R. Ranstead and Private L. Ewen, who are on final leave, a social was held on Friday evening. Although the weather was very rough, a good crowd was present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr Trubshaw, on behalf of the residents, presented each of the departing men with a razor and strop. Special reference was made to Lieut. Ranstead, who is the fourth of the family to answer the call. The family has put up a splendid record, and one which will take a lot of beating. Two brothers went away with the first draft. Mr Ranstead enlisted in England, and has returned invalided, and now Ralph has given up his prospects to fight for the Empire. During the evening the following ladies and gentlemen contributed songs: Miss Garland, Messrs E. T. Robinson, Fort, Deveral and W. Ranstead; recitations were given by Master Holland and Mr Fort. Miss Barkley presided at the piano, and with Mr R. Cranston, provided the dance music.

HONOURS FOR SOLDIERS.

The news that Private A. McClellan had been awarded the D.C.M. was received here with great satisfaction, and Mr Jas. McClellan, the father of the soldier, was the recipient of hearty congratulations.

Further honours have come to the district, word having been received that Mr Paul Mitchell, who was seriously wounded in the Somme push, has also had the D.C.M. bestowed upon him. We are proud of the boys.

ROLL OF HONOUR.

Regret has been expressed in many quarters that a record has not been kept of all the boys who have gone from the district to help the Empire in her need. It is not too late to remedy this, and I suggest the placing of a tablet in our new school with the names inscribed. The following are among those who have gone:—Ranstead (4), Rowe (3), McClellan (2), Thomas (2), Mudford (2), Holloway, Sutherland, Ticklepenny, Bell, De Ville, Murray, King, Coghlan, Corrigan, Campbell, Phillips, Cranston, Elliott, McLaig, Libeau, Mitchell, McWilliams, Burns, Shepherd, Bowyer, Hamil, Hinton, Snow, Marychurch, Gray, Smith, Bellingier, Kennedy, Wright, Robinson, Tyler and Thompson. There are probably some others, but the above 45 represent a big gap in the district. I would be glad to receive any further names which may have been omitted to add to the list.

WORLD WAR I Service for Matangi District

The following records and references indicate the basis for the inclusion of names on the Matangi District Roll of Honour placed in the Matangi Hall in November 2018. It is not an exhaustive record but allows those interested the opportunity to find out more about any of those listed. The list includes those who had an association with Matangi through residence, work and/or relationship as what happened to each of these people would have had an impact on the Matangi Community at the time. The Matangi Hall was a significant connecting point during those years as can be seen in local newspaper records of the time.

This list was compiled with the assistance of Eris Parker and Dave Homewood of Cambridge, Jan Powell and local residents.

Aged 20.

Buried Church St, Walton on Thames, England.

Obituaries CORPORAL T. W. PHILLIPS. Corporal Thomas Wallace Phillips, of the Auckland Mounted Rifles, is reported to be dangerously ill. He is 20 years of age and a son of Mrs M. Phillips, of Matangi, being one of a family of three—a twin brother and a sister. He was educated at the Academy, Dumbarton (having been born in Scotland), and was awarded a gold medal for attending without missing a day in nine years. He holds trophies for physical drill, scout work, and shooting. At the age of 16 (then over 6ft in height) he joined the Auckland Mounted Rifles, and at the time of enlisting he was engaged in farming. [Auckland Star, 7 September 1915]

CORPORAL T. W. PHILLIPS. Corporal Thomas Wallace Phillips, recently reported to have died at Walton Hospital, London, through wounds received at the Dardanelles, followed by pneumonia, was well known in the Cambridge district. He was born in Dumbarton, Scotland, in 1894, and came out to the Dominion a few years ago. He served as a volunteer in the Cambridge section of the Waikato Mounted Rifles. Corporal Phillips was a good rifle shot, having won many prizes. [New Zealand Herald, 2 November 1915]

— Corporal James Watson, of Pukerimu, Cambridge, wrote home: "The fighting last night was terrific, the Turks were up on top of the slope and we were half way up so all they had to do was to roll the bombs down on us. Practically all the Auckland Mounted Rifles were killed or wounded. The fourth [Waikato Squadron] had about 16 left out of 89. All the officers killed. Tom Phillips [died of his wounds in England on October 18, 1915] was wounded by one of our naval shells falling short."

Commemorated Lone Pine Memorial, Turkey. The Lone Pine Memorial stands on the site of the fiercest fighting at Lone Pine and overlooks the whole front line of May 1915. It commemorates more than 4,900 Australian and New Zealand servicemen who died in the Anzac area - the New Zealanders prior to the fighting in August 1915 - whose graves are not known. Others named on the memorial died at sea and were buried in Gallipoli waters.

AT THE DARDANELLES

SOLDIERS' LETTERS.

Writing from Cairo, June 6th,

Private R. M. Sutherland, 16th Waikatos, relates some of his experiences in the landing at the Dardanelles. Private Sutherland, with Privates H. Bell, T. Holloway and Alf. Ticklepenny [sic], were employed at the Matangi milk factory, when war broke out, and immediately they all enlisted. "The Waikatos were the first New Zealanders into the firing line...I can tell you things were pretty warm. The bullets and shells were very thick. It was not long before dead and wounded were lying all over the beach, but somehow it seemed natural to see them there...I never heard what happened to Alf; he seems to have been missed after the first day. ‘Welcome Home Sapper King’s Return. Considering the short notice given, quite a number of people assembled at the Matangi station to welcome Sapper S. B. King, who returned by the Willochra. Sapper King was not fortunate enough to set foot on Turkish soil, being wounded on a transport before he was able to land. The school children were dismissed early and all assembled on the platform, and as our returned soldier slipped off the train cheer after cheer rose to greet him. Sapper King was the first volunteer to leave Matangi, and is also the first to return.’
